IOWA CHAMP WINS FIRST IN FLOP-ON MEET

Loses One Game; Frank Jackson Second in Running.

Ringing the peg with a total of 424 ringers and 118 doubles in 15 games, Frank Lundin of New London, Ia., the new state champion of Iowa, added the title of national champion to his list by winning fourteen out of fifteen games in the finals of the national horseshoe tournament at the state fair grounds.

The new champion rang the peg with machine like precision in all of his games. Lundin is the second Iowa man to hold both the state and national titles. Frank Jackson, of Kellerton, Ia., who finished second in the meet, held both titles last year. Jackson's score was 389 ringers, 80 doubles and 13 won games, losing to Lundin and his son, C. E. Jackson. A victory over his son would have placed him in a tie with Lundin for first place.

Lyle Brown of Des Moines placed third with 441 ringers, 109 doubles and 11 games won. Brown was the only man who was successful in defeating the new champion during the entire tournament. He was also runnerup to the champion in the state meet.

Spencer Wins Fourth Place

R. P. Spencer of Picher, Okla., finished fourth with a score of 411 ringers, 97 doubles and 11 games won. Spencer and Brown were tied for third place and in the play-off the Oklahoma state champion lost by the score of 50 to 49.

E. R. Plagmann of Conroy, Ia., was fifth with a score of 371 ringers, 67 doubles and 10 games won. Plagmann was tied with Billy Crick of Independence, Mo., for fifth place, but won out in the play-off by the score of 50 to 37.

Crick finished sixth with a score of 328 ringers, 69 doubles and 10 games won.

Seventh place was won by Harold Falor, city champion of Akron, O., a boy about 14 years old, with a score of 345 ringers, 82 doubles and 9 games won.

Davis Falls Down

George May of Akron, O., and C. C. Davis of Columbus, O., were tied for eighth place and in the play-off May won by the score of 50 to 44. May's score for the fifteen games was 386 ringers, 87 doubles and 8 games won. Davis finished in ninth place with a score of 390 ringers, 83 doubles and 8 games won.

Frank Lundin, World's Champ, 1922.

Elzie Ray of Shenandoah, Ia., was tenth with a score of 360 ringers, 72 doubles and 7 games won.

H. E. Jackson of Kellerton, Ia., was eleventh with 328 ringers, 64 doubles and 5 games won.

Chris Ericson of Beresford, S. D., was twelfth with a score of 228 ringers, 41 doubles and 4 games won.

Three men were in a tie for thirteenth place and in the play-off J. F. Walls of Missouri Valley, Ia., won the place with a score of 248 ringers, 34 doubles and 3 games won.

E. W. Crank of Wilburn, Ill., won fourteenth place in the play-off of the tie for thirteenth, his score for the fifteen games being 290 ringers, 43 doubles and 3 games. P. W. Bair of Kansas City, Mo., was fifteenth with 316 ringers, 49 doubles and 3 games. C. E. Jackson of Kellerton, Ia., was sixteenth with 237 ringers, 35 doubles and 2 games.

Iowa had a total of eight representatives that won places in the national meet and the fans were making the last line of the Iowa corn song read "that's where the good pitchers grow."

A gold medal set with diamonds, a trophy valued at $100, and $250 in cash are the total prizes won by Lundin in the meet. A gold medal set with sapphires and $150 in cash are the prizes won by Frank Jackson, winner of second place; and a gold medal set with rubies and $100 go to Lyle Brown of Des Moines, winner of third place. A gold watch and $75 was won by R. P. Spencer, the fourth place winner. All other winners were awarded valuable prizes angng fom $50 cash to $20 cash, with a trophy for each place.

An exhibition match between Mrs. C. A. Lanham of Bloomington, Ill., the new national woman champion, and Edwin Werner of Indianapolis, was won by Mrs. Lanham with a score of 19 ringers, 2 doubles and 50 points. Werner scored 21 ringers, 3 doubles and 45 points.

The following is the summary of the final round:

1923 NATIONAL TOUR-NAMENT AWARDED TO CLEVELAND, OHIO

Cleveland, Ohio, will be the stamping ground of the next meet for championship honors, 1923 pitching Dobbin's castoffs. After some good boosting the fans and boosters from Ohio landed for Cleveland what promises the greatest event ever attempted in horseshoes. Several cities bid for the meet, Omaha, Neb., being there with a line out for the big meet, while the Iowa State Fair Association bid for repeating again in 1923.

It was noised around that Cleveland would go after the event, while Omaha had already put in their bid, at the same time having the promise of support of several delegates, Minnesota being their real leaning post, but through the efforts of Mr. Stanley Hixson and Art L. Headlough of Akron, Ohio, who telegraphed the full conditions to Mr. Rice, recreation booster of Cleveland, urging him to come to Des Moines to sell the tournament, knowing at the same time that if certain persons had anything to do with the event that Cleveland's prospects would be slim. After some wire-pulling and passing the buck Cleveland decided to bid, and outbid any other city that was after the tournament.

Mr. McCarthy of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, being a good sport, made the suggestion that all favor Cleveland, ut at the same time explaining that Minnesota had promised him their vote, which had been switched to Cleveland. After some delay a vote was taken, with Cleveland on the long end.

Horseshoe pitchers will never regret coming to Cleveland in 1923 because the affair in the Fifth City will be strictly a horseshoe event, Mr. Rice stating there will be a program that will keep the pitchers busy every day and night, such as movies, parties, sightseeing, boxing shows, and entertainments for the ladies by the Woman's Club of Cleveland, with a membership of over 5000. The expectations are that the affair will be held at Brookside Stadium, where the finest horseshoe courts will be constructed that money and skill can make possible. A prize list that will run over $1000 cash prizes, with another $1000 in trophies and medals, is the offering.

Don't miss the 1923 tournament—It will be a humdinger, right in Ohio, the hotbed of the horseshoe game.

GOOD GAMES AT LAKE NORTH, FLA.

Horseshoe pitching has started in the Sunny South, the Lake Worth Club having put on some exhibitions, which is the real hotbed for the iron-heaving in Florida. Lake Worth is the headquarters of the Florida State Horseshoe Pitchers' Association and expects to charter many of the Southern clubs this winter. The present total membership is over 3000.

HAROLD FALOR WINS
CITY SHOE TOURNEY

AKRON, Ohio.—In spite of a sensational finish by Clark Wallis, Harold Falor continued on his winning streak though the final eliminations of the city championship horseshoe tournament and copped the local title with a three-game margin over his older opponent at Summit Beach park Sunday afternoon.

Falor is the youngest city champ
Akron has ever had, having seen only 14 summers. Wallis was coming along at a fast clip on the last day and bystanders predict that if the eliminations had gone many more games he would have won the honors himself.

HILST WINS ILLINOIS TITLE

AURORA, Ill. — George Hilst of Green Valley Ill. won the state horseshoe pitching championship tournament at the Central States fair in a pitchoff of a tie with five others.
In the finals Hilst won every game.
Johnny Hogan, Chicago, was second with five victories and two defeats.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

The first indoor Horseshoe court in Cleveland opened its doors for the public Saturday October 7th. All modern conveniences have been assured the public. Several courts for women have an important place in this new Horseshoe palace. The location of the courts are at East 49th St. and Superior Ave. This is just the beginning of real indoor courts throughout the country.

PEORIA STAR BOOST HORSESHOE.

Peoria, Ill.

Enter The Star Tourney.

Entries for the Peoria Star horseshoe tournament, which will be staged under the national rules late in September, are coming in rapidly. Indications are that every pitcher in Peoria and surrounding towns will be entered.

The Star is offering a gold watch to the winner and three medals to runners-up, while cash prizes also will be awarded. An entry fee of fifty cents a man is being charged. All entry money will be divided in the cash purse of prizes.

Every pitcher who anticipates entering the meet should send in his entry blank, accompanied by the fee, immediately in order that the tournament officials might work out the details connect with the meet.

Pitchers will be divided into groups and preliminary games will be played off on nearly every court in the city. In each group each pitcher will be pitted against the other contestants in that group and the winner will be entered in the finals.

Judging from the amount of interest displayed in the game and the Star's project, the tournament will be one of the biggest stunts ever pulled off in local sport annals. Officers and members of the various clubs are co-operating with The Star in staging the tournament, and competent men will be in charge of the events nightly.

Doctors' Horseshoe Attracts.

That Doctors' horseshoe is grasping a firm hold on lovers of the barnyard golf game is evident from the fact that a night has been set aside by the Glen Oak club at which time only the Doctors' game prevails. The night designated this week is Thursday, at which time the Peoria Star Champions clash with the Glen Oak Ringer artists.

A few preliminary matches between girls and boys, young ladies and old ones, will be staged prior to the windup between these two crack outfits.

Bill Kircher's Star aggregation has not met with a single defeat in the "pill" game and are out to scalp the bluffers in Thursday's battle.

Lichtenberg in Victory.

Lichtenberg's 'Non-skids' put over a victory in their match with the Butler street pitchers on the new Lichtenberger court last night. The match was hotly contested and a large gallery of fans and fannettes swarmed round the new field.

Three of the games were exceedingly close. A couple of points divided them.

The 'Non-skids' lost the opener, 105 to 101, but won the second, third and fourth with scores of 105 to 88, 105 to 102 and 105 to 85. In the finals the Butler Street pitchers were victorious, 65 to 59.

Lichtenberger's club registered 72 ringers and Butler street 71. Johnny Lichtenberger carried off the individual honors with 23 ringers. D. Hopkins and Tom Powers, with 21 each, ran him a close second. John Schoeb put over 20 ringers.

At times the iron shoes act like rubber balls.

West Bluffs Have Grand Opening

Before a crowd numbering over 500, which filled every nook and cranny of the bleachers surrounding the courts, the West Bluff Horseshoe club officially opened its courts to the public.

Though the opponents, the North End club team, cleaned up on the beginners, 524 to 309, the West Bluffers were not a whit discouraged over the showing made by their team, for the North Enders are recognized as one of the best lot of tossers in the city, and the hilltoppers haven't tuned their eyes up thoroughly as yet.

Prizes of all sorts were distributed last night, but Hopper, star pitcher of the North End outfit, carried off the lion's share because of his matchless performance. Hopper threw 17 ringers in the 105 point match and 11 ringers in the final match, which went to the North End team composed of Hopper and Guinee, over the West Bluff pair, McGrath and Reents.

In this final match the North Ends totaled 20 ringers. Hopper tossed 11 ringers and chalked up a total of 30 points while his teammate threw five ringers and made a total of 19 counters. McGrath of the West Bluff outfit garnered 34 points, winding nine ringers while Reents collected 16 points and three ringers.

The festivities were started off with an address by Mayor Michel. A musical program in which John Hanson, Paul La Rocco, Harry Ohl, Joseph Karl and Paul Mellenbach participated.

Why don't they put rubber chains on the horse shoes so they'll bounce on the peg?

East Bluff Victorious.

By a score of 485 to 414 the East Bluff club won their second victory this week from the Maple City club. In ringers the Bluff crowd outpitched their opponents by 111 to 70. In the final contest, however, the Maple City club won over the Bluffites by 65 to 57.

Tonight at their courts the fast going East Bluff crowd will meet Low Point in what ought to be one of the Albion Fruit Grower Sets New Mark at Horseshoe Pitching.

ALBION, N. Y.

You may think you are some horseshoe pitcher. You should consider the record made by G. E. Snyder at Ithaca, N. Y., the other day. In three fifty point games he threw forty-six ringers and eight double ringers. These are the figures furnished to us by Director Mann of the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell University and they must be accurate, though they seem amazing.

Mr. Snyder is a fruit grower at Albion and he was the Empire State's champion at the national tournament in Florida last winter. He deserves to rank with Babe Ruth, Chick Evans, Jake Schaefer, Jr., and other kings of athletic endeavor, for horseshoe pitching is a game of highest skill. The man who can throw ringers and double ringers so felicitously should have a monument erected in his honor even while he lives.

Horseshoe Men Elect Moran

Choose Temporary Secretary Of Association.

Attorney John P. Moran has been elected temporary secretary of the Greater Cleveland Horseshoe Pitchers' Association, to succeed Walter E. Rise, who resigned the secretaryship when he left the Cleveland Recreational council, horseshoe pitchers announced yesterday.

Bert M. Newman was re-elected president of the association, which is bending its energies to prepare for the national tournament to be held in Cleveland next year.

A committee composed of the officers and Harold O. Berg, director of the recreation council, is revising the constitution of the association, and the results of their work will be presented for adoption at a meeting of the association Oct. 3.

Members of horseshoe clubs will meet on their club courts Saturday to qualify for the club tournament. Preliminaries in the club tournament will be played a week from Saturday and Sunday. The club finals are set for Oct., and on Oct. 14 the club champions will be matched against the winners of The Plain Dealer tournament Saturday.

OHIO HORSESHOE TITLE GOES TO LOREN MAYS.
AKRON MAN; SWEEPS COURTS IN FINALS

Loren Mays, from Akron, is Ohio horseshoe pitching champion for 1922. He won the title Saturday by sweeping the courts in the finals of the state tournament, Canton, O.

Mays never hesitated Saturday. Competing in a field of 13 finalists, each of whom pitched 12 games, the Akron expert won his dozen straight and in most convincing manner. The statistics show that he wrapped 358 ringers and 83 double ringers around the stake during the day, an average of almost 30 ringers and seven doubles per game. In addition to the state honors, he took back to Akron with him a cash award of $50. After the first preliminary round on Thursday, Mays pitched the best horseshoes of the tournament, winning 20 games in a row Friday and Saturday.

W. Yocum of Zanesville and Willie Witt of Akron finished in a tie for second place, each winning nine and losing three in the finals. Witt scored 576 points, pitched 327 ringers and 73 doubles, while Yocum scored a total of 522 points, pitched 281 ringers and 64 doubles. But in the pitch-off of the tie the Zanesville man won 50 to 40, twirling 32 ringers and four doubles against 30 ringers and four doubles for his opponent.

Johnny Lux, Canton man, who holds both city and county championships, tied for fourth with Ira Wolfe, another Akron shark, but lost the pitch-off 50 to 40. In his 12 games Wolfe scored 564 points, while Lux registered 531, while in the play-off Wolfe shot 24 ringers and five doubles against 22 ringers and four doubles. Al Mays of Akron, Harold Falor of Akron and Wallis of Akron also finished within the eight money positions. The figures for the eight money winners—in their 12 final games:

	Won	Lost	Points	Ringers
Loren Mays, Akron ($50)	12	0	600	358
W. Yocum, Zanesville ($40)	9	3	522	281
Willie Witt, Akron ($30)	9	3	576	327
Ira Wolfe, Akron ($25)	8	4	564	295
Johnny Lux, Canton ($20)	8	4	531	271
Al Mays, Akron ($15)	7	5	508	301
Harold Falor, Akron ($10)	6	6	509	291
Wallis, Akron ($10)	6	6	454	244

The youngest pitcher on the courts during the tournament was L. Miller, an 11-year-old lad from Zanesville. He displayed plenty of accuracy and good style, but did not possess the strength to carry him through over the 40-foot distance. The event was considered a success by those competing, largely because of the efforts of the officials in charge. Andy Kratt was official referee during the tournament.

A resume of the county tournament on Wednesday shows that Johnny Lux won the championship by a very narrow margin, as Harry Schwitzgebel scored just as many ringers as did the winner, 169, and 11 more double ringers, leading in this respect 27 to 16. But he was unfortunate in placing his outside shoe, losing one game and winning eight while Lux copped nine straight. The high five in te county events finished in this manner:

	Won	Lost	Points	Ringers
Johnny Lux	9	0	450	169
Harry Schwitzgebel	8	1	432	169
Lawrence Barrett	7	2	401	159
Jake Schwitzgebel	6	3	396	164
Essig	4	5	376	131

Frank Lundin
Lyle Brown

For years and years Frank Jackson of Kellerton, Ia., has been winning the horseshoe pitching championship of the world, until finally the other Iowa boys began to take an interest in the game.

The finals of the national tournament were decided and Jackson was not among those present when it came to walking away with the championship. But Frank Lundin of New London, Ia., came to the fore and saved the reputation of the Corn state by taking first place.

Jackson was second, however, and Lyle Brown of Des Moines, a sixteen-year-old youth, was third. Not so bad for the old state at that.
